SUSAN CASEY

Candidate race: Mayor

Age: 53

Current occupation and prior experience:

I have 30 years of service in the public sector including working as a teacher, social worker and member of the Denver City Council. On City Council, I fought to pass Denver's ethics code, one of the strongest in the country, addressed transportation issues (helping form the southeast Denver Transportation Solutions); laid out strategies to reform and modernize the Denver Police Department (Law Enforcement 2000); and proposed the Best Babies initiative (increasing investment in the health and development of young children and their families).

Education:

Ph.D. from University of Denver, Denver, CO. 1995.

M.S.W from University of Connecticut, West Hartford, CT. 1975.

B.A. from the University of New Hampshire, N.H. 1971.

Family:

I have been married to Terry Casey, an investment banker, for thirty years. We have two children, Jennifer, a former bilingual teacher and Conor, a professional soccer

Hobbies:

I enjoy reading and photography and many outdoor activities including hiking, biking, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing and gardening.

Campaign Statement:

I am running for mayor to make a difference in people's lives and because I love this city. On City Council I helped to balance six budgets and worked with every agency and department in the City. My service reflects my commitment to ethics, public safety, neighborhoods and business. I will set the highest ethical standards, foster a climate of honesty, openness, customer service and accountability. I will restore and enhance confidence and trust in government.
